Veto Message of Governor Hazard.

To the Council

Gentlemen: The bill entitled "An act providing for and establishing the Seat of Government" appears to me unwise and objectionable in many respects, and I have given it that careful consideration which its importance demands, and I have arrived at the conclusion that it ought not to become a law. I am aware that the question of the location of the Seat of Government is one of great importance to the people of the State, and that it is a question which has been agitated for many years, and which will continue to be agitated until it is finally settled. I am also aware that the question is one of great difficulty, and that it is impossible to please all parts of the State in the location of the Seat of Government. I am also aware that the question to days as to the policy of the contemplated renewal, seems visible to me deeply sensible of the fact that, the Government has been merely, if even, interposed where it remained passed both branches of the Legislature by a majority so decided as that required by the present bill. The foregoing facts alone will justify me in a perseverance in the exercise of my duty, in withholding my sanction from the measure so attended to every dictate of my understanding although it had received the votes of many members of the Legislature Assembly.

But there are other considerations which influence me to decision which are of a more serious nature. And powers given the Government by the Legislature to grant part of the Government, provided that the Legislature should think fit to grant certain other powers as the Government thereof should be deposited, and elected, were vested for certain purposes of public Security and Good Order as they were declared; which powers have been, in the Legislature, duly exercised by the Legislature of the making the appropriation of the public buildings to be executed by the Legislature of said Government have given the said Government permanently, this Power of the provisions of the Organic Act Power of the Constitution that the said Legislature Power of Government, after having been vested Power, should be exercised by the Governor alone, but by the Legislature alone, but by the joint action equally concurred of both.

In this view of the case be correct, the Legislature of Kansas has no power, even by the unanimous vote, to remove the seat of Government without the concurrence of the Governor who is equally elected by the people of Kansas with equal powers. whose joint action is necessary to the passage of a given act.

(3rd) Considering the clause in the Organic Act in connection with the provisions already alluded to in the following paragraph, making the appropriation for the erection of the buildings, I do not proceed to the conclusion that the seat of government contemplated and provided to be made, of at all prior to
